

Castle Hill High School

Special Religious Education (SRE) Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time in class for education in ethics, faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective at the choice of parents.

The school website www.castlehill-h.school@det.nsw.edu.au provides information on provisions of SRE at Castle Hill High School.

A parent/carer may at any time notify the school in writing that they wish to change their decision.

Students will continue the same arrangement as the previous year, unless a parent/carer has requested a change in writing.

For more information about Special Religious Education (SRE), including the list of approved providers, please visit: <https://education.nsw.gov.au/teaching-and-learning/curriculum/learning-across-the-curriculum/religion-and-ethics>

Students not attending SRE will be attending normal timetabled classes and provided meaningful activities such as homework, private study and reading.

The following options are available at Castle Hill High School. Please select if you wish for your child to be involved in SRE.

SRE Option - SRE is organised by the Australian Christian Churches, operating at Castle Hill Christian Education Association, which is a collective of local churches.

OR

Please check this box if you do not wish for your child to attend SRE. Your child will participate in alternative meaningful activities.
